JUMPING BACK ON THE PATH

It's normal to be excited at the beginning of the year about accomplishing all of the goals that you set out for the New Year. However, statistics show that 80% of all New Year's Resolutions fail by the second week of February!

JUMPING BACK ON THE PATH

STATISTICS SHOW THAT 80% OF ALL NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS FAIL BY THE SECOND WEEK OF FEBRUARY!

It's normal to be excited at the beginning of the year about accomplishing all of the goals that you set out for the New Year. However, statistics show that 80% of all New Year's Resolutions fail by the second week of February!

I was speaking with a friend of mine earlier this month, and he was pretty disappointed about his lack of consistency of working towards his New Year's Resolutions. He was speaking as if his 2019 were already a failure and that he should wait until 2020 to give it another shot! As a good friend, my message was simple and encouraging. I simply told him to jump back on the path.

Although this statistic may be disappointing, I want to encourage you not to be discouraged! If you are part of this 80% and were on the path towards knocking your New Year's Resolutions out earlier in this year but fell off the path, jump back on. There's still plenty of time to make this year your best year yet.

In my January 2019 newsletter, I wrote a piece encouraging each of you to make 2019 your best year yet. It's normal to fall short of your target when you're trying something new. Unfortunately, many people equate falling short with failure. You're only a failure if you quit and don't get back up after you stumble. Think back to when you were learning how to ride a bike. Sure, you may have fallen from time to time, but ultimately, you got back on the bike, and now you can hopefully ride a bike with ease!

If your consistency towards knocking out your 2019 New Year's Resolutions has taken a back seat, regroup and jump back on the path towards making this year the best year ever. If you are in need for some encouragement to bounce back on the path towards making this year your best year yet, feel free to email me at Tyler@baileylawfirm.com. We can encourage each other as we make 2019 the greatest year yet!

SWORN IN AS A MEMBER OF THE BAR OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

This February I had the honor and privilege of being sworn in as a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States. The Supreme Court of the United States is the highest court in the federal judiciary of the United States.

Many great cases have been heard and ruled on by the Supreme Court such as Brown vs. Board of Education in which the Court declared state law establishing separate public schools for black and white students to be unconstitutional. Furthermore, some of our country's greatest lawyers have argued cases there including a personal favorite of mine, the notable civil rights lawyer, and Associate Supreme Court Justice, Thurgood Marshall

It was an honor to be sworn in as a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States.
